

Lord I come to worship You
With body soul and mind.
I come to offer praise to You
And seek what I should find

I humbly bow my heart to You
While joyfully I sing
Repentently I yeild to You
My broken life I bring

Chorus
Purify my heart and make it new
Open up my my eyes reveal Your truth
Make known my sins and I'll confess them to You
Then by Your grace I will draw close to You

You are the awesome one true God
There's none that can compare
The mighty ruler of the earth
Your glory I'll declare

Chorus
Purify my heart and make it new
Open up my my eyes reveal Your truth
Make known my sins and I'll confess them to You
Then by Your grace I will draw close to You

Be with me as we leave this place
Embolden me to share
The words and thoughts that I've heard today
With people everywhere.

Draw me close to You Lord
Close to You Lord
I need You everyday
Draw me close to You

Draw me close to You Lord
Close to You Lord
I need You everyday
Draw me close to You

Draw me close to You (draw me close to You Close to You)
