

Thy Hands Have Made Me - Psalm 119:73-80
Words and Music By: Ed Newman

Thy hands have made me and fashioned me
Give me understanding that I might learn Thy commandments from Thee
May those who fear Thee, see me and be glad Because I wait for Thy word and the hope in Thy word that I had

Chorus

I know, O Lord, that Thy judgements to me have been righteous
And that in faithfulness Thou hast afflicted me
Oh many Thy Loving kindness be of comfort to me Your servant
According to Your word, according to Your Promise

Oh may Thy mercy come to me that I might live
For Thy Law is my delight and it's in the light that I live
May the arrogant be ashamed for they subvert me with a lie
But I shall meditate on Thy precepts and by Thy teachings I shall get by.

C2

May those who fear Thee or revere Thee turn to me
Even those who know Thy testimonies
May my heart be blameless and complete in Thy statutes
That I might not be ashamed, That I may not be ashamed
That I may not be ashamed.
