

There's Been Some Times Of Trouble
Words and Music By: Ed Newman

There's been some time of troubles, there's been some time of pain
Times when my future seems so muddled, there's been some time of shame
But you know my shame has brought changes, pains' caused me to seek His cure
My trouble cause me to be dependent on my future from the Lord

Chorus

But you know I've felt His blessings, time and time and time again.
Working through all of my testings, producing qualities that are needed in the end

Living for Christ is not a guarantee, that though life you'll smoothly cruise.
Stormy seas will come eventually; Since Christ suffered so will you.
For the Lord will not cast off forever, for if He causes grief,
Then He will have compassion, according to His abundant mercies

Chorus

But you know I've felt His blessings, time and time and time again.
Working through all of my testings, producing qualities that are needed in the end

Bridge

No Temptation, has ever overtaken me not common to man
And God is faithful, to allow what I'm able only to withstand
With the temptation will provide the situation that I might escape
So it's my obligation to search out that situation remembering His sufficent grace.

So to all of you I would strongly urge, prepare in advance for your exams
Correct response answers are found in His Word, wrong responses bring re-exams.
In every trial there is a lesson to be learned, so learn it well
Rest in Him and do not question, "Why me Lord?" instead "Thank you Lord. What is Your Will?"

Chorus

But you know I've felt His blessings, time and time and time again.
Working through all of my testings, producing qualities that are needed in the end
