

Let the Roses and Daisies - Debbie's Song
Words and Music By: Ed Newman

My soul, wait thou only upon God,
For my expectation is from Him.
He only is my rock, my salvation:
He's my defense and I shall not be moved

Let the roses and daisies remind us we should be
Best friends as we live out our lives
Let me be only loving, submitting and forgiving,
As you love me, like Christ loved his bride.

My beloved we've waited so long,
For this time to come, when we are one
It seemed like it would never, ever come to be,
But how wonderful that the time's finally come.

And if times should get rough, remember when it was enough
Just to hear each others' voice on the phone.
With Christ we'll keep staying, sharing and praying
Growing closer as a family from now on.

Let the roses and daisies remind us we should be
Best friends as we live out our lives
Let me be only loving, submitting and forgiving,
As you love me, like Christ loved his bride.

Repeat

My soul, wait thou only upon God,
